ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 25, 1865.

NUMBER 149

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, Sr.
OFFICE—No. 104, King street, over
French's Book Store.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

Mr. Arthur Tappan died at New Haven, Conn., on the 23d instant, in the eightieth year of his age. Mr. Tappan was one of the early Abolitionists.

Gen. Thomas has issued an order suspending from office Mayor Andrews and Justice Welch, of Columbia, Tennessee, and ordering the arrest of Galloway and Friezon, two lawyers, on account of their late prosecution of the negroes. Guerrilla depredations are almost daily taking place by roving bands of robbers in Middle Tennessee.

The Macon, Ga., Telegraph and Atlanta Intelligencer have articles "on probable scenes of bloodshed and massacre on the part of the freedmen, unless the authorities turn their attention to the matter at once."

Joslin Stewart, whose arrest in Boston was announced several days ago, on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of the Joyce children, has been honorably discharged.

The combinations to keep up the prices of provisions at the North, are met there by combinations to suppress extortion—and these latter, if persisted in, have the desired effect.

The head of a rattle snake, severed from the body, upon being examined by a man, in Dubuque, Iowa, struck its fangs into the hand of the man who held it, and killed him.

A writer in the New York Herald states that negro voting has been tried in the South American and Central American governments, and in some of the islands of the West Indies, and has produced no better results than frequent revolutions, rebellions and wars between the races.

About fifty thousand dollars worth of fractional currency, defaced or worn, is redeemed per day, and an equal quantity of new issued in its place. The entire amount of fractional currency is upward of $21,000,000.

The gamblers, who abound at the Northern Springs, are, next to the waiter population, the largest residents. It is said that the present promises to be the flushiest gambling season ever known. Greenbacks are plenty, the facilities for gambling are ample and enticing, business is dull, the war is over, time hangs heavily—in short, all things are propitious for the sporting element.

The Savannah Herald's Orangeburg, S. C., correspondence says, that place is yet mostly lying in ashes. Railroads are being rapidly repaired. Laborers are receiving twelve dollars a month. The crops are in a fine condition. All of the towns in South Carolina are or soon will be occupied by the National troops.

The military authorities in Tennessee have directed the writ of habeas corpus sued out by Mr. Emerson Etheridge, not to be obeyed—he being in custody of the military.

The trial of Bennet G. Burley, one of the Lake Erie raiders, took place at Port Clinton, Ohio, last week, and Judge Fitch, of Toledo, who presided, delivered a most important charge to the jury, to the effect in substance that the "Confederacy" has been a government de facto, and that if they found that Burley was a regularly commissioned officer in the "Confederate States" navy, and that he was acting under orders in making the raid, he was a belligerent, and was not guilty of the alleged robbery. Notwithstanding this very remarkable charge, eight jurymen favored a verdict of guilty. Four stood out, however, and after five hours' deliberation the jury reported to the Court that they could not agree, and were discharged. The second trial was set for the October term of the court and Burley was admitted to bail in the sum of $3,000, which he will probably obtain without trouble.

Gen. F. P. Blair, in his farewell order to his troops, denounces the conduct of France in relation to Mexico, says that the time for enforcing the Monroe Doctrine has arrived, and that the whole "conspiracy" to establish an imperial government in Mexico, must be frustrated.
